

Towards a Localised Future: A New Economy Convergence

9am-5 pm, Saturday 17th September 2016

SCHEDULE*

- 9.00 Arrival and registration
- 9.15 Helena Norberg Hodge
Workshop overview: Presenting the global to local vision
- 9.30 Film showing: The Economics of Happiness
- 9.50 Molly Scott Cato
Response to the Economics of Happiness paradigm
- 10.05 Rupert Read & Helena Norberg-Hodge
Post-growth localisation presentation and Q&A
- 11.15 Break (coffee and tea served)
- 11.30 World Café session: From Problems to Solutions
(Participants will divide into three groups to rotate through discussions on the following topic areas)
- Trade treaties and other mechanisms of globalisation: the problem
 - TTIP and TPP
 - Subsidies and taxes
 - Policies
 - Monocultures of the mind—the impact of globalisation on worldview
 - Education
 - Media
 - Politics
 - Transition to localised economies: solutions and action
 - Political change
 - Renegotiating the trade treaties
 - Grassroots renewal
- 1.00 Lunch (A list of recommended places to eat near the venue will be provided)
- 2.00 James Skinner
Local food at the heart of the new economy

2.15	Michael Shuman Financing the local food revolution (special video presentation)
2.30	Local food in action: From London to around the world Bruno Lacey: Urban Growth and sustainable food systems in London Charlotte O'Connor: Growing community through growing food Anja Lyngbaek: Food and farming in the International Alliance for Localisation (IAL)
3.00	Q&A discussion How to link the thriving local food sector to broader systemic change
3.30	Break (coffee and tea served)
3.45	Panel discussion and Q & A with Helena Norberg-Hodge, Rupert Read, James Skinner and Shaun Chamberlin Beyond Brexit: policy and grassroots change for a new UK economy
5.00	Event ends

* Times, content and speakers are subject to change without notice. Refunds cannot be given because of schedule changes.

