celebrate World Localization Day? Why not hold a public screening and discussion (guide documentaries. Economics of Happiness We are thrilled to see that his (co-director) new film: collaborate with local governments. These themes are also highlighted in and right, and o fficers advice on how the grassroots can and should this movement of alternatives is helping to bridge the divide between left being adapted to diverse cultures and bioregions. He speaks about how especially in the Spanish-speaking world, where models of transition are of community-led responses to social, economic crises and climate change, Director of episode 9: Juan del Rio community and nature. widescreen cultural resurgence – a movement towards true regeneration, caused by globalization in Japan, and a fascinating introduction to the Our World Localization Day local food system: a helpful overview of the local food movement. Our annual celebration of the worldwide Our localization movement is growing stronger. Across the world, people of local knowledge systems and more. the localization 'movement of movements', farmers markets, decentralized community gardens, eco- from the localization 'movement of movements', Localization Action Guide. Are you planning a WLD event? We can help you! Our WLD resources include: A call to action Localization: our local knowledge systems and more. You can find more inspiration to learn more. A call to action Localization: our local knowledge systems and more. You can find more inspiration to learn more. #WorldLocalizationDay